The parties shall use their best efforts to settle the dispute by mediation. Upon written notice from any party to the other (the "Dispute Notice") the dispute shall be referred to a suitably qualified independent mediator, whose identity shall be agreed between the parties in writing, within 7 (seven) days of receipt of the Dispute Notice, and failing agreement as aforesaid, to a suitably qualified independent mediator appointed by the President for the time being of the Cape Law Society (or its successor body in the Western Cape). The mediator shall be an Africa Centre for Dispute Settlement accredited mediator. The mediation shall be held at a venue in Cape Town. The parties shall agree on the mediation procedure and failing agreement within 14 (fourteen) days of receipt of the Dispute Notice or such longer period of time as may be agreed to in writing, then, the mediation shall take place in accordance with the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law Model Conciliation Rules in force at the time of the dispute. If for any reason, including lack of co-operation by the parties, a dispute is not settled by mediation within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the Dispute Notice or such longer period of time as may be agreed to in writing, then the dispute shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the following provisions: the arbitrator shall, if the dispute is agreed in writing by the parties to be: primarily an accounting matter, be an independent practicing accountant of not less than 10 (ten) years' standing as such; primarily a legal matter, be an attorney of not less than 10 (ten) years' standing as such or a practicing senior counsel; any other matter, be a suitably qualified independent person, agreed upon in writing by the parties; provided that if the parties do not, within 14 (fourteen) days of the 30-day period contemplated in clause 16.5 agree in writing as to the identity of the arbitrator, the arbitrator shall, irrespective of the nature of the dispute, be appointed by the Registrar of the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa upon request by any party to make such appointment; the arbitration shall be held at a venue in Cape Town and shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa; immediately after the arbitrator has been appointed, any party shall be entitled to call upon the arbitrator to fix a date and place when and where to meet with the arbitrator to settle the manner in which the arbitration proceedings will be held; subject to the clause above any order or award that may be made by the arbitrator: shall be final and binding; shall be carried into effect; and may be made an order of any competent court. Nothing in this section shall preclude any party from seeking interim and/or urgent relief from a court of competent jurisdiction.
